REGISTRAR NOW FOR THE 2019 AAS STATE MEETING

October 25-27, Sedona, Arizona

Friday, Oct, 25: The meeting begins with the Directors Meeting (Chapter Presidents and the Executive Committee) from 10:30 am to noon in the Sedona Public Library, 3250 White Bear Rd., Sedona.

Tours of the Lowell Observatory, 1400 W. Mars Hill Rd., Flagstaff, will be available at 2 and 3 pm. There will be an admission charge. If you want to take a tour, contact Linda Krumrie at aplacinthesun@commspeed.net to be included. You do not need to stop in Sedona, you can go directly to the Observatory. Dinner is on your own.

Saturday, Oct. 26: The State Meeting begins at 8 am at the Elks Lodge, 110 Airport Rd, Sedona, with a continental breakfast from 8 to 10:30 am followed by the annual business meeting. Registration and field trip sign-up will be available from 8 to 11:30 am, and an optional lunch will be available at the Elks Lodge for $6. (See the meeting schedule on page 3.)

Panel Discussion: from 2 to 4 pm, on Significant Facets of the Verde Valley Archaeology and History Newly Revealed, moderated by Dr. Sandra Lynch (was Curator of Anthropology, Sharlot Hall Museum; now adjunct):

- Peter Pilles, long-time Archaeologist for the Coconino National Forest (CNF), will give a summary talk on the succession of rock-art styles in the greater Middle Verde Valley area that he has spent decades in studying.

- Dr. Todd Bostwick, Executive Director for the Center for Verde Valley Archaeology, will discuss the results of the recent analysis of the incredible collection of elaborate wooden artifacts, beautiful cotton textiles, and well-preserved food remains recovered during the excavations.

- Jerome Ehrhardt, VVC officer and member, will summarize his 18 years working with the CNF, the Museum of Northern Arizona, and numerous VVC volunteers on a detailed archaeological survey in the Middle Verde Valley which has recorded over 600 archaeological sites.

- Matt Guebard, Archeologist for the National Park Service, will discuss recent attempts to further investigate the defensibility of the Montezuma Castle cliff dwelling using Native American traditional knowledge, archaeological data, architectural analysis and experimental archaeology.

For more on the talks and the speakers, go to the AAS website (www.AzArchSoc.wildapricot.org) and select Annual Meeting under the About Us tab
Poster Session: Posters will be available for viewing until the Panel Discussion begins and afterwards. A cocktail social hour will afford opportunities for more informal discussions with the panelists about their findings and ideas. The posters are:

- Field Surveys of Hilltops and Valleys of the Mogollon Rim Country, Middle Verde Valley by Jerome Ehrhardt
- A Settlement Pattern Analysis of Yavapai and Apache Archaeological Sites in the Verde Valley Area, Central Arizona by Linda and Ted Neff, Peter J. Pilles, Jr., and Ron S. Krug
- The Value of Legacy Data: The Paul Dyck Collection by Todd Bostwick
- Replicating a Prehistoric Masonry Room at Tuzigoot National Monument by Matt Guebard and Lucas Hoedl
- Mapping the Hackberry Basin Racetrack Site Complex by Donald Keller
- Salvage Excavations of Pithouses at the Hayfield Draw Site on the Prescott National Forest in the Middle Verde Valley by James Graceffa, Keith Greiner and Todd Bostwick.
- Application of Advanced Digital and Image Processing Techniques for Archaeological Site Photo Documentation and Evaluation by Spence Gustav
- Changing Patterns of Resistance and Conflict in West-Central Arizona, A.D. 1100-1425, by David R. Wilcox
- Mapping Doren’s Castle, a Butte-Top Pueblo Fortress at the center of the Greater Hackberry Basin Settlement System, Middle Verde Valley, Arizona by David R. Wilcox, Donald Keller, and Jerome Ehrhardt
- The Ceramic-Dating of the Salome Butte-Top Pueblo, NA19,286/AR 03-04-01-254, Middle Verde Valley, Arizona by Keith and Jeannie Greiner, Jerome Ehrhardt, and David R. Wilcox
- Quid Queries: Agave and Yucca Quids from Honanki by Walter Gosart

For more on the posters and their presenters, go to the AAS website (www.AzArchSoc.wildapricot.org) and select Annual Meeting under the About Us tab.

Silent Auction, 8:30 am to 6:30 pm: items such as framed photographs, artwork, crafts, gift baskets and items with a southwestern theme will be available to bid on. There will be also be a 50/25/25 raffle drawing, free door prizes, a book sale, and the sale of beautiful ceramic southwest 'salsa' bowls with spoon. These salsa bowls are brightly painted on the inside with a matching spoon; the outside is black matte with 5 different styles of rock art designs - a great holiday or gift idea for any occasion. The winning bids will be announced after the keynote address and AAS Award Presentation. There will also be a credit card 'square' available for you to charge your purchases.

AAS Awards Dinner, 5:30 to 6:30 pm. The keynote address will be given at 7 pm by Dr. Carla Van West on Significant Facets of the Verde Valley Archaeology and History Newly Revealed. Dr. Van West is a distinguished archaeologist with the Statistical Research Foundation; she will highlight recent contributions to our understanding of the archaeology of the Middle Verde River Valley and its surrounding terrain.

For more on the Keynote Address and Dr. West’s Bio, go to the AAS website (www.AzArchSoc.wildapricot.org) and select Annual Meeting under the About Us tab.

The AAS Avocational Award Presentation will be made after the keynote address ends, and then the Silent Auction winners will be announced (so that they can pay and pick up the items they won before 9 pm).

Sunday, Oct. 27, Field Trips: About 10 field trips are planned, most led by panelists and presenters to places illustrative of their topics, as well as others to places most AAS members have not seen before but should enjoy visiting with knowledgeable guides.

CHAPTER NEWS

Agave House Chapter

Field trips:
July 20: The Museum of Northern Arizona; contact Era Harris.
August: #1: Kinishba Ruins, easy walk.

Fundraiser: July 13: Rim Community Senior Center bazaar. We will have a table with items for sale. Please donate items. Contact Era Harris. More information to be emailed.

Forest Service volunteer opportunities: Chris Sherbak, Archaeologist for Black Mesa Ranger District, asked for volunteers for July 22-26. The Pinedale Ranger Station is going to be scraped and painted and more help is needed. Call the Black Mesa Ranger Office at 928-535-7300 for more information.

June 26th Meeting: Very few people are privileged to watch and photograph a White Mountain Apache Sunrise Dance, but our speaker, Carol Sletten (author, illustrator, speaker and visual artist) had the opportunity recently and shared her story and photos with our group. The Sunrise Dance is the last dance of a grueling 4-day ritual for an Apache girl on her sacred path to womanhood. Carol’s narrative and photos reflected so poignantly the raw emotions, love, and tenderness, not only of the young woman, but also her family, friends and others gathered to help her through her ceremony. Our entire group was totally captivated by this enlightening presentation! For those who would like more information about the speaker go to WWW.carolsletten.com or find her on Facebook.

July 24th Meeting at 6:30 pm at Black Mesa Ranger District Conference Room. Dinner at 5 pm at Wild Women Restaurant in Heber Overgaard, AZ. Refreshments, brought by Era Harris, will be served after the meeting. Everyone is welcome to come to dinner and the meeting.

Aug. 28th Meeting: Free presentation on Set in Stone but Not in Meaning: Southwestern Indian Rock Art by archaeologist Allen Dart, funded by Arizona Humanities.
--Era Harris

Desert Foothills Chapter

September Meeting: Preservation Archaeologist Aaron Wright, PhD, presents A Renewed Study of a Patayan Walk-In Well on the Ranegras Plain in Far-Western Arizona. The Patayan cultural tradition is one of the least understood archaeological constructs in the Greater Southwest. While recognized nearly 90 years ago as a distinct assemblage of material culture traits centered on the lower Colorado River, research has always been hampered by poor chronological control. Few Patayan archaeological sites have been excavated, and of those even fewer have yielded contexts amenable to absolute dating (i.e., radiocarbon or archaeomagnetic). A dearth of stratified contexts compounds the problem.

Archaeologists have long heralded a site near Bouse, Arizona, as a possible panacea for this “Patayan problem.” First described by the Gila Pueblo Foundation in 1928 as the westernmost Hohokam site because of a conspicuous “hollow mound” (i.e., a ballcourt), a test excavation in 1952 by Michael and June Harner exposed this feature as an eight-meter deep walk-in well containing a variety of artifacts, namely thousands of sherds of Lower Colorado Buffware. Based on intrusive Hohokam ceramics, Michael Harner reported the well as infilled with stratified deposits. Unfortunately, an excavation report was never prepared, and the collections have consequently been “orphaned.” Moreover, the actual location of the site was lost to the archaeological community.

In 2015, Aaron Wright began a renewed study of the Patayan walk-in well near Bouse, including its relocation and a thorough site documentation, a re-creation of the Harners’s excavation, analysis of the more than 6,000 artifacts recovered from the site, and the acquisition of radiocarbon dates from the well’s purported stratified deposits. In this presentation, he reports on the results of these endeavors.

Chapter Web News: The web address for the chapter website is the best place for evolving DFC Chapter news and updates, www.azarchsoc.wildapricot.org/desertfoothills. If you are gone for the summer, taking a vacation anytime, or unable to attend meetings; this is an excellent information source. The chapter website slide show files are back up and running. PLEASE NOTE, the DFC 2019 membership renewal form is available on our chapter website with 2020 coming soon!

Classes, Workshops, Special Events and Expanded Field Trips: Mary Kearney is the primary contact for classes, workshops, special events or trips at maryk92@aol.com and the only place to sign up or get more information. Please remember classes, workshops, and trips are open to current AAS members only with DFC members having priority. There is “no” registration on the day of the activity. There is “no” preregistration for any activity prior to formal announcement.

Workshop/Activities/Trips: None currently scheduled with time off for the summer. Keep up with chapter news through our eblast emails and chapter website changes during the summer.

Please note: there is an exciting pending schedule of speakers/events for this fall and Mary is currently completing the schedule for the entire coming year. Once again, we expect a robust availability of trips and workshops in the coming year too. We hope everyone enjoyed their summer off!

Homolovi Chapter

In August, the Homolovi Chapter did not hold a meeting so that members could make the trek to Cloudcroft for the Pecos Conference. The chapter also supported Homolovi State Park in their annual Suvoyuki Day celebration, co-sponsored with the Hopi tribe.

On September 11th, we will welcome Dr. E. Charles Adams, speaking on The Origins of the Katsinas. In 2019 Dr. Adams celebrates 50 years as an archaeologist in the Four Corners region. In 1991 the University of Arizona Press published his book, The Origin and Development of the Pueblo Katsina Cult. Archaeologists have learned a lot about katsina and other early Pueblo ritual and ceremonies since its publication, including important collaboration with Hopi and other Pueblo groups. In this talk, Adams provides an update on this research and how his work in the Homol’ovi/Chavelon pueblos contributed to this new understanding.

Our regular meetings are on the 2nd Wednesday of the month at 7 pm at the Winslow Chamber of Commerce Visitor Center (Historic Lorenzo Hubbell Trading Post), 523 W. Second St in Winslow; talks are free to the public. You can also join us and the speaker(s) for dinner at 5 pm at the Historic La Posada Turquoise Room (on your own tab).

Little Colorado River Chapter

Our chapter has had a busy summer. In June we welcomed John Welsh of Archaeology Southwest and Simon Fraser University. John gave a program on tactical sites in the Southwest and how landscape plays a role in site location. The July program was an AZ Humanities presentation by Al Dart on Ancient Southwest Native American Pottery. He thoroughly covered the pottery styles of all the major southwest Native American groups and showed how the styles changed through time. August found us taking a field trip down the Blue River. Bill and Barbara Marks invited us to their ranch on the lower Blue to view petroglyphs and large archaeological sites near their ranch. One interesting site may very well have been a tactical site and we need John Welsh to come with us next time to check it out. The Marks family not only toured us around to the sites but also provided a delicious lunch for us all. Their hospitality was wonderful and we were invited back again.

Our September program features another AZ Humanities speaker, Jim Walker, who will be talking about Southwest Cultural Crossroads. The program will be on Monday, Sept. 16th at the Springerville Heritage Museum.

Phoenix Chapter

Sept. 10^{th} Meeting: Our speaker will be Chris Loendorf, Senior Project Manager for the Gila River Indian Community (GRIC) Cultural Resource Management Program. His topic is The Hohokam to Akimel O’Odham Continuum: The Transition from Prehistory to History in the Phoenix Basin of Southern Arizona. When Spanish missionaries first visited the Phoenix Basin in the 18th century, the middle Gila River was one of the few places in southern Arizona where sedentary irrigation farmers still lived. Since that time the relationship between the prehistoric populations (Hohokam) and the Historic people (Akimel O’odham or Pima) has been debated. However, most research has focused on traditions that changed over time, while those that didn’t change have been largely ignored. In fact, extensive archaeological research provides compelling evidence for continuity in cultural practices over time. Furthermore, Akimel O’odham cultural knowledge regarding their past has been largely ignored or misunderstood, although this information provides considerable insight into the past. While many changes occurred between prehistory and history in southern Arizona, this is part of a much longer cycle of episodic variation in cultural traditions that is documented in the Akimel O’odham stories.

Chris Loendorf has been employed by the Gila River Indian Community Cultural Resource Management Program for the last 20 years. He earned his B.A. at the University of Montana and his M.A. and Ph.D. at ASU, and has worked on a wide variety of archaeological projects from the Southwest to the Northern Plains since 1981. He has studied Hohokam archaeology since coming to Arizona in 1989 to work on the Roosevelt Platform Mound Study. His research expertise includes projectile point design, rock art analysis, mortuary studies, and x-ray florescence analysis of archaeological remains.

Upcoming Meetings:

- Oct. 8: Paul & Suzy Fish, ASM, Tucson, Two Early Villages of Tumamoc Hill

Rim Country Chapter

There will be no Sept. 7th meeting, but we look forward to speaker Butch Farabee from Oro Valley on Saturday, Oct. 5th. His topic will be El Camino del Diablo, The Devil's Highway.

--Evelyn Christian

San Tan Chapter

Sept. 11th Meeting: Jim Britton will present Tonto Basin Archaeology at our first fall meeting. In 1989 the Bureau of Reclamation funded an 8-year archaeological research project in the Tonto Basin. The research was required by plans to raise the height of the Roosevelt Dam by 77 feet. Archaeology sites that might be impacted by the rising water were to be studied. Jim will show some details of four of the major platform mound sites. One of the sites is Cline Terrace, which we will visit on a field trip in October.

Oct. 12th Meeting: Our Fall Field Trip to the Tonto Creek area with Advisor Chris Loendorf. Assuming the Monument is open, we will all meet at the Tonto National Monument Visitor Center at 9 am where a Ranger will lead our group on a hike up to the Lower Ruin. Then Chris will lead a caravan over to the north side of Tonto Creek to visit the Cline Terrace Platform Mound site. Prior to working at the Gila River Indian Community, he worked at this site and will give information about the excavations there. This portion will require a high-clearance vehicle; we can carpool from the Monument. Please remember to wear good hiking shoes, wear lots of sun protection, bring plenty of water and possibly a snack. If time permits, we might visit another site nearby. Please contact Marie Britton at mbrit@cox.net or phone 480-390-3491 to reserve your spot on the tour.

Nov. 9th: Mark your calendars for this date! San Tan Chapter is hosting a small event called An Invitation to Arizona Archaeology from 10 am to 2 pm at the San Tan Historical Museum (see below). We have invited flintknappers and artisans from S.A.L.T. who will demonstrate fire making from local materials and techniques for making arrows. It should be an enjoyable time at the Museum, which will be open to the public free of charge.

San Tan Chapter meetings are held at the San Tan Historical Society Museum at 20425 S Old Ellsworth Rd in Queen Creek (on the corners of Queen Creek Rd and Ellsworth Loop Rd.) Parking is behind the museum. Go east on Queen Creek road and take a sharp right into the rear parking lot. Presentations start at 7 pm. Dinner with the speaker is at 5:30 pm prior to the meeting. For more information, contact Marie Britton at 480-390-3491 or mbrit@cox.net

Verde Valley Chapter

Sept. 26 Meeting: Join us at 7 pm for a special presentation by author Ron Parker on Chasing Centuries: The Search for Ancient Agave Cultivars Across the Desert Southwest, as he examines the relationship between pre-Columbian Native Americans and agaves (century plants) in Arizona. They developed, gardened, and farmed their own unique agaves, and many of these plants are still found exactly where they were originally planted hundreds of years ago. It is a fascinating and uniquely Arizona story! Books will be available for purchase.

Fall Class: We have reserved 11 Mondays starting on Sept. 30 from 2:30-4:30 pm for the AAS Introduction to the Prehistory of the Southwest Course to be held at the Sedona Public Library.

Our meetings are held at the Sedona Public Library, 3250 White Bear Rd., Sedona, and are free and open to the public. Donations are gladly accepted.

--Linda Krumrie

Yavapai Chapter

Annual Picnic at Willow Lake: The Yavapai chapter will kick off the new season with our annual What Did You Do on Your Summer Vacation? picnic at 4 pm on Saturday, Aug. 24th at the main ramada at Willow Lake. Even if the picnic has happened by the time you read this, the pit houses are definitely worth a visit. They are located near the main ramada at Willow Lake and are open and manned on the first Saturday of each month from 10 am to noon. Group visits for educational purposes can be arranged. Volunteers to act as docents are welcome. You’ll receive all the training you need and the commitment is small. Contact Warner Wise if you wish to participate.

General Meetings:

June: Our own Andy Christenson talked about The Cliff Dwellings of Tsegi Canyon. Following that we took our summer break.

NOTE: Beginning in September, general meetings will be held on Wednesdays; the change starts with our next meeting, which will be held on Sept. 18th. The meeting time is still at 6:30 pm, as is the place, the Smoki Pueblo. And we’ll still have the pre-meeting early dinner that so many members enjoy. Only the meeting day has shifted - to the third Wednesday of every month.

Sept. 18: The next meeting will feature Kathryn Turney, the cultural resources manager for Yavapai County, who will tell us what she’s learned about the displacement of several Navajo families when the Wupatki National Monument was created. As usual at our general meeting we will have a selection of books from our library displayed and available for members to check out take home and read. The library is focused on southwestern archaeology and includes many volumes you won’t find anywhere else.

Field Trips: No field trips were held through the summer but the chapter has planned an extended visit to Chaco Canyon on Sept. 10th to the 12th with our own guide; a side trip to the Aztec ruins is also planned. The 9th and 13th will be travel days. At the time of writing there are still a few openings, so, if you read this in time, contact Betty Iwan by email or phone 630-927-0324 if you want join in.

Smoki Museum:

Sept. 13-14: Annual Fall Navajo Rug and Indian Art Auction. The art auction is at 5 pm on the 13th. The main event is on the 14th, with the preview beginning at 9 am and the auction at noon.

Sept. 20-22: Prescott Powwow at Watson Lake. The Smoki Museum is a proud sponsor of this annual event of the Granite Mountain Gourd Society to which the community is invited.

More info is available on the Smoki’s Events webpage.

Watch the Condors Soar! Member Mary DeWitt wants everyone to know about a spectacular event happening on Sept. 28th - that’s when the Arizona Game and Fish Department will be releasing the latest batch of California Condors. The public is invited to come and watch the release. Learn all about it here.

--Ian Critchley
